The Sorted Project
Journey to recovery

Sail onboard Panacea in Edinburgh

The Sorted Project is a Scottish charity based in Edinburgh. We support people with complex health needs including recovery from mental health and substance dependency. Are you in recovery and looking for the next step?

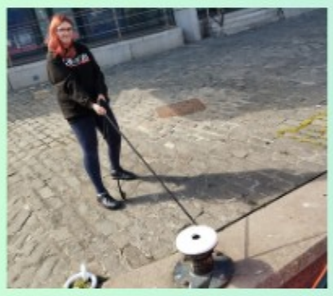

Enjoy being on water and in nature

Our Union Canal is home to diverse habitats, supporting a wide range of plant and animal species. Help to take care of this community resource with litter picking and wildflower planting

Become a crew member

Train to become a member of our crew. Sail and take care of Panacea and achieve your RYA Helms Certificate through our Royal Yachting Association training centre.

Invest in your Well-being

Panacea provides a peaceful space and the perfect opportunity to relax. Take time and enjoy the view from the bow or the window.

Confidence through new experiences

The Sorted Project provides opportunities for new experiences, making healthy social connections, visiting new places and learning new skills.
